

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Surely is a great way to end this psalm because it is the beginning to something foundational. The word assurance has the word surely in the middle of it.

Life is uncertain and the only person who you can be sure of is Jesus.
He lived a perfect life.

Goodness – (Ex. 34:10) is a name of God
The word good compresses to form the word God

Mercy – covenant love – God is a God of covenant love. He is in covenant with you.

Shall follow me – (Duet. 28) – overtake or chase you down.
Goodness and mercy are 2 angels who will watch out over you!

AND I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever:

To dwell means to return to the house of the Lord. (Ps. 27:4-5)

Forever – (2 Cor. 5:1-4) – when you leave this earthly body you will be in heaven and have a new and glorified body.

Are you sure of where you will go?